

How to Get the Most from Your Membership

We've added even more value to your MEEA membership.
Learn, connect and promote your work with these member benefits.

MEEA Webinar Series

Have a program that's seen great results? Promote it via MEEA's webinar series.

Members Section in Newsletter

Share your press releases, newsworthy items, awards or events in the MEEA Minute.

Committees and Working Groups

- Participate in our policy, program, membership or building energy codes committees.
- Share your thoughts and help shape the Midwest Energy Solutions Conference through the Conference Advisory Committee.
- Help us select the Midwest's best and brightest by joining the Inspiring Efficiency Awards Review Group.

Custom Networking & Education

- Do you have staff that are new to MEEA or the energy efficiency industry? Get them up-to-speed with our MEEA 101 or EE 101 presentations—we'll even come to you!
- Need a better understanding of the Midwest policy landscape? Our policy staff can brief you in person or via webinar on our 13 states and what to keep an eye on.
- Want to build relationships in the industry? MEEA hosts receptions and events all year round.

MEEA Research and Resources

- Get the latest Member Directory or join committees by logging into the Members' Section on mwalliance.org.
- Check out our new-and-improved Advocacy Tool-Kit to access tailored messaging guides, state-specific fact sheets and resources on the most important topics facing our industry.

RFP Directory

Discover new business opportunities on our online list of RFPs. Looking for bids from partners? Send your RFPs to be included on the list.

Need Something Else?

Can't find a resource? Need us to facilitate an introduction? Reach out to MEEA and we'll do our best to accommodate your needs.

MEEA is ready to hit the road and visit you. Let us know if you'd like us to come to your office or city to host a MEEA 101 or EE 101 presentation. Need more networking? Let's plan a happy hour to bring industry professionals together in your city.
